Transit Authority to Add Express Buses

By Helen Marsh

DORSET CITY (April 2)—The Dorset City Transit Authority announced on Monday that it will introduce express bus service between downtown and Westfield Airport beginning on July 1. — [1] —.

The new buses will make only three stops, reducing the trip from about 70 minutes to 40 minutes. They will run every 20 minutes from 5 A.M. to midnight. A one-way ticket will cost $6, compared with $2.50 for a regular bus. — [2] —.

Transit officials said the service is intended to address complaints from airport employees and travelers about long travel times.

"Many of the people who work at the airport live downtown," said transit director Samuel Oduya. "We want to make their commute easier." — [3] —.

The authority will pay for the service with a grant from the state's transportation department. If ridership is strong, officials say, express routes to the university and the stadium could follow. — [4] —.

Nadia Brooks (9:15 A.M.)
Good morning, everyone. The client from Altamira Foods just moved our presentation from Thursday to tomorrow at 2:00.

Kevin Tran (9:16 A.M.)
Tomorrow? The sales figures for the third quarter won't be final until Wednesday.

Nadia Brooks (9:17 A.M.)
I know. They mostly want to see the new package designs. We can use the second-quarter figures and mention that updated numbers will follow.

Lena Fischer (9:19 A.M.)
The designs are finished, but the printer has only two of the four sample boxes ready.

Kevin Tran (9:20 A.M.)
Could we show the other two on screen?

Lena Fischer (9:21 A.M.)
That should be fine. I'll prepare digital images this afternoon.

Nadia Brooks (9:23 A.M.)
Perfect. Kevin, can you book the large meeting room? The small one won't hold eight people.

Kevin Tran (9:26 A.M.)
Done. It's reserved from 1:30, so we'll have time to set up.

172. What are the writers mainly discussing?

(A) Preparing for a client meeting
(B) Hiring a new designer
(C) Reviewing third-quarter results
(D) Ordering office supplies

173. What is suggested about the third-quarter sales figures?

(A) They were sent to the client last week.
(B) They are not yet available.
(C) They show a decline in sales.
(D) They will be printed on the boxes.

174. At 9:21 A.M., what does Ms. Fischer most likely mean when she writes, "That should be fine"?

(A) She thinks the printer will finish the boxes in time.
(B) She approves the second-quarter figures.
(C) She agrees with Mr. Tran's suggestion.
(D) She can attend the meeting tomorrow.

175. What will Ms. Fischer most likely do this afternoon?

To: Ana Lucero
From: Rosa Delgado
Date: September 3
Subject: Class question

Dear Ms. Lucero,

I registered for your Wednesday class last month, and yesterday I received a message saying that it has been canceled. I was looking forward to it, since I am recovering from a knee injury and my doctor recommended low-impact exercise.

I start work at 7:00 A.M., so your other class is not an option for me. Could you suggest another class that would be suitable? As a member of the center, I would prefer to use my refund toward another class here rather than receive the money back.

Best regards,
Rosa Delgado

Clearview Window Cleaning

★★★★☆

I hired Clearview last week to clean the windows of my two-story house before a family visit. It was my first time using a professional service, and I was very pleased. The two workers arrived exactly on time, covered my furniture before starting, and finished in under three hours. I also had them wash my twelve window screens.

My only complaint is that I had to call twice to schedule the appointment because no one answered the first time. Still, I would definitely use them again. —Martin Cole

182. According to the advertisement, what is offered to first-time customers?

(A) A free estimate
(B) A price reduction
(C) Free screen washing
(D) A gift card

183. How much did Mr. Cole most likely pay?

(A) $160
(B) $180
(C) $184
(D) $204

184. What did Mr. Cole appreciate about the workers?

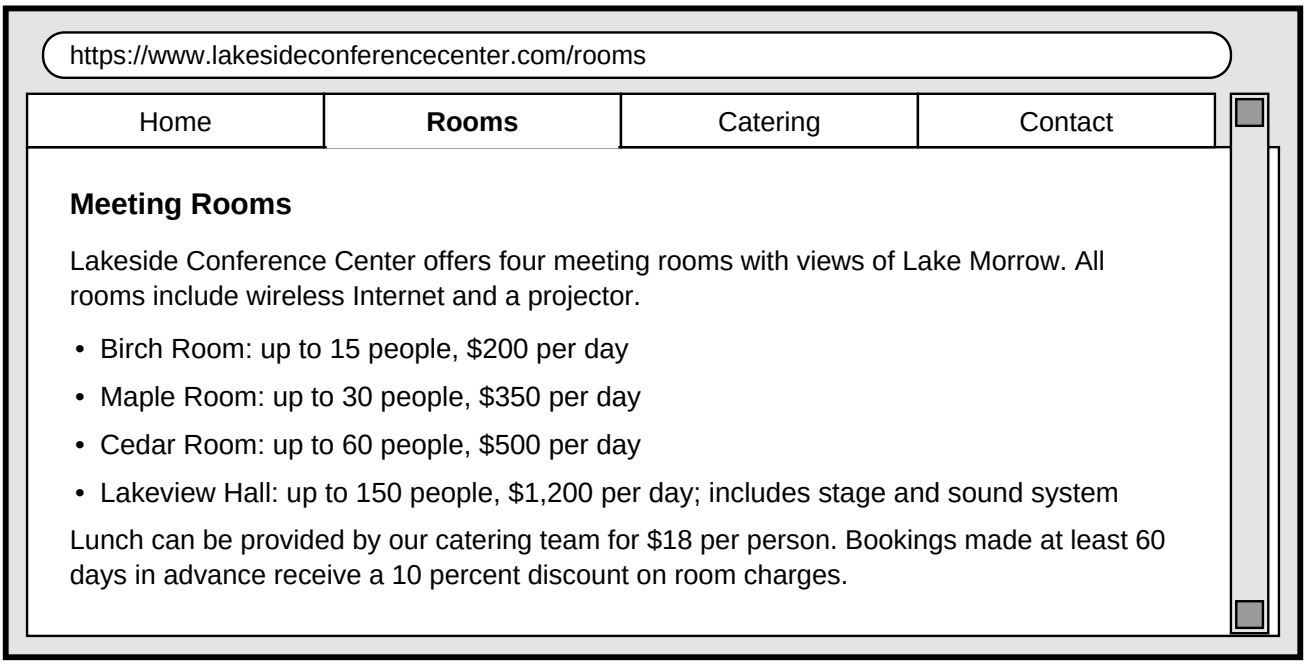

(A) They offered a discount.
(B) They worked in the evening.
(C) They cleaned his skylights.
(D) They protected his belongings.

185. What problem does Mr. Cole mention?

(A) The workers arrived late.
(B) The job took longer than expected.
(C) Some screens were damaged.
(D) He had difficulty reaching the company by phone.

Questions 191-195 refer to the following notice, e-mail, and memo.

Hartwell Public Library: Volunteer Tutors Needed

The Hartwell Public Library is looking for volunteers to tutor adults who are learning to read and write in English. Tutors meet with one learner for two hours each week at the library.

Applicants must be at least 18 years old and able to commit to at least six months. No teaching experience is required; all volunteers complete a free training workshop. Workshops will be held on Saturday, February 8, and Saturday, March 7, from 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. To apply, contact volunteer coordinator Ellen Moore at emoore@hartwelllibrary.org.

To:	Ellen Moore
From:	David Kim
Date:	January 29
Subject:	Tutoring program

Dear Ms. Moore,

I saw the notice about the tutoring program on the library's bulletin board, and I would like to volunteer. I retired last year after thirty years as a high school science teacher, so I have plenty of free time.

However, I will be visiting my daughter in Seattle from February 3 to February 16. Would it be possible for me to attend the later workshop instead?

Sincerely,
David Kim

MEMO

From: Ellen Moore
To: Volunteer Tutors
Date: March 10
Subject: Welcome!

Welcome to the eleven new tutors who completed our training workshop on Saturday! Your learner assignments will be sent by e-mail this week.

Because of the high number of learners this spring, the library has made two additional study rooms available on the second floor. Please reserve a room at the front desk before each session. As a reminder, sessions must take place at the library, not at a tutor's home.

191. What is the purpose of the notice?

(A) To announce new library hours
(B) To recruit people to help adult learners
(C) To advertise English classes for children
(D) To hire a volunteer coordinator

192. What is NOT a requirement for tutors?

(A) Completion of a workshop
(B) Previous teaching experience
(C) Being at least 18 years old
(D) A six-month commitment

193. What is suggested about Mr. Kim?

(A) He used to teach English.
(B) He lives in Seattle.
(C) He attended a workshop in March.
(D) He has tutored at the library before.

194. What does the memo indicate about tutoring sessions?

(A) They take place on Saturdays.
(B) They are held in groups.
(C) They must be held at the library.
(D) They last one hour.

195. According to the memo, why have additional rooms been made available?

(A) Many learners are enrolled.
(B) Some rooms are being renovated.
(C) The library has extended its hours.
(D) Tutors requested quieter spaces.

Questions 196-200 refer to the following article, form, and e-mail.

City to Launch Bike-Share Program

MILLBROOK (May 3)—The City of Millbrook will launch a bike-share program on June 1 with 200 bicycles at 25 stations. Riders can unlock a bike using a mobile app and return it to any station.

Single rides will cost $2 for up to 30 minutes. Residents can also purchase an annual membership for $60, which includes unlimited rides of up to 45 minutes; members pay $1 for each additional 15 minutes. The program is funded in part by Millbrook Medical Center, whose main building will host the largest station.
