PART 7

Directions: In this part you will read a selection of texts, such as magazine and newspaper articles, e-mails, and instant messages. Each text or set of texts is followed by several questions. Select the best answer for each question and mark the letter (A), (B), (C), or (D) on your answer sheet.

Questions 151-152 refer to the following report.

APP USABILITY REPORT

April 2
Application: Parkwise 3.1
Test period: March 24–26
Number of testers: 10

Overview: Testers were asked to carry out four tasks using the redesigned Parkwise screen. In task 1, testers located a parking garage near a given address. In task 2, testers reserved a parking space. In task 3, testers paid a parking fee. In task 4, testers added time to an existing reservation.

Initial findings: Task 4 caused the most trouble, with four testers giving up before finishing. The likely reason is that the button for this function appears only after the user scrolls to the bottom of the screen. Moving the button to the top of the screen could solve the problem.

151. What is true about the test?

(A) It compared two versions of the app.
(B) It was carried out in a parking garage.
(C) It lasted more than one day.
(D) It required testers to fill out a questionnaire.

152. What did testers have difficulty doing?

(A) Finding a garage
(B) Reserving a space
(C) Making a payment
(D) Extending a booking

Questions 172-175 refer to the following online chat discussion.

Helen Park (10:02 A.M.)
How did the interview with Ms. Okoye go yesterday?

Omar Reyes (10:03 A.M.)
Very well. Her drawings are excellent, and she already knows the software we use for our building plans.

Helen Park (10:05 A.M.)
Good. I noticed she has worked in furniture design and stage design as well as architecture. That range should help with our hotel projects.

Omar Reyes (10:06 A.M.)
I agree. Tariq, could you arrange a second interview with her? I hope that isn't too much to ask on a busy day.

Tariq Aziz (10:07 A.M.)
No trouble at all. When should it be?

Omar Reyes (10:09 A.M.)
Helen, you'll be joining us this time. Keep in mind that Mr. Lund will ask why she wants to leave freelance work. He'll also want to be sure she isn't planning to move on after a year or two.

Helen Park (10:10 A.M.)
Understood. Tariq, Mr. Lund and I are both free on Thursday afternoon.

Tariq Aziz (10:12 A.M.)
Perfect. I'll e-mail her now.

172. For what type of business do the writers most likely work?
(A) A furniture store
(B) A theater company
(C) An architecture firm
(D) A hotel chain

173. At 10:07 A.M., what does Mr. Aziz most likely mean when he writes, "No trouble at all"?
(A) He is willing to do what was asked.
(B) He had no difficulty reaching Ms. Okoye.
(C) He thinks the interview went smoothly.
(D) He does not need to attend the meeting.

174. What is indicated about Ms. Okoye?
(A) She has experience in several fields.
(B) She has designed hotels before.
(C) She used to work with Ms. Park.
(D) She has never worked on her own.

175. According to the discussion, what will Mr. Lund want to know?
(A) Whether Ms. Okoye can start right away
(B) Whether Ms. Okoye has managed a team
(C) Whether Ms. Okoye is available to meet on Thursday afternoon
(D) Whether Ms. Okoye intends to stay with the company

Questions 176-180 refer to the following article and letter.

Make Your Commute Work for You

Midlands Commuter — June issue

For many of us, the daily trip to work means crowded platforms, hard seats, and wasted time. A few simple changes, however, can turn those hours into a more pleasant part of the day.

Comfort
• Carry a small cushion for long train rides.
• Choose a seat away from the doors to avoid cold drafts.

Productivity
• Save documents to your device before you leave home, since connections on trains are often unreliable.
• Listen to recorded books or language lessons rather than reading on a screen.

Health
• Get off one stop early and walk the rest of the way.
• Bring a bottle of water, especially in summer.

Do you have a tip of your own? Send it to us, and we will print the best ones in our July issue.

Letters to the Editor

Your article on commuting described my mornings exactly. Your readers may like to know about the company I work for, Foldaway Ltd. We make equipment for people who work while they travel.

Our Slimline laptop stand, for example, weighs just 400 grams and folds flat enough to fit in a coat pocket. Our reading light clips onto any seat and runs for ten hours on one charge. New products are added to our online shop every season.

Rina Voss

176. What is NOT recommended in the article?

(A) Sitting away from the doors
(B) Walking part of the way
(C) Listening to recorded lessons
(D) Buying a monthly pass

177. Why are unreliable connections mentioned?

(A) To recommend a different train line
(B) To warn readers about delays on certain train lines
(C) To explain why files should be saved in advance
(D) To suggest working at home

178. What is indicated about the magazine?

(A) It plans to publish suggestions from readers.
(B) It is handed out free of charge on trains.
(C) It is published by a railway company.
(D) It will stop printing after the July issue.

179. What is suggested about Ms. Voss?

(A) She writes professionally for travel magazines.
(B) She founded Foldaway Ltd.
(C) She read a recent issue of the magazine.
(D) She works from home.

180. What is suggested about Foldaway Ltd.'s products?

(A) They are inexpensive.
(B) They are sold only in summer.
(C) They are easy to carry.
(D) They are made from recycled materials.

To: Lena Fischer

From: Paul Reyes

Date: March 20

Subject: Okafor book

Hi Lena,

I am looking forward to finishing our plan for the café's rooftop garden. Before we order any plants, though, I would like to rethink where the containers will go. Have you had a chance to look at the Okafor book I lent you? She gives excellent advice on raising vegetables where room is limited. Let's go over it at the staff meeting on Friday.

Paul

(A) Cooking
(B) Bookbinding
(C) Gardening
(D) Interior design

187. What is suggested about Mr. Reyes?

(A) He paid for his books before the workshop.
(B) He will receive a book by mail free of charge.
(C) He attended the workshop with Ms. Fischer.
(D) He gave a short talk to the other participants at the workshop.

188. What is the purpose of the notice?

(A) To request volunteers
(B) To advertise a new book
(C) To announce a schedule change
(D) To explain a problem

189. In the e-mail, what does Mr. Reyes want to reconsider?

(A) The date of a meeting
(B) The placement of some containers
(C) The cost of some plants
(D) The size of a garden

190. How much did Mr. Reyes pay for the book he lent to Ms. Fischer?

(A) $9.00
(B) $12.00
(C) $15.00
(D) $18.00

Questions 191-195 refer to the following article, e-mail, and chart.

Harbor Mill Plan Stalls

PORT ELWAY (9 November)—Corvin Development's plan to convert the old Harbor Mill into shops and offices has run into further delays. A company spokesperson says that talks with the city over the cost of a new access road are continuing and have become rather tense. Under the plan, Corvin must preserve the mill's brick exterior while creating shop space on the ground floor and offices above. The city's building permit for the project, however, has been suspended until the talks are concluded.

The delay worries local business groups. "Turning an empty mill into useful space would bring life back to the waterfront," says Marta Lindqvist of the Port Elway Merchants' Association. "I hope Corvin does not walk away. The city should remember how carefully the company restored the Dock Street warehouses."

E-mail

To:	leasing@corvindevelopment.com
From:	Joao Pereira
Date:	3 March
Subject:	Shop space inquiry

Dear Sir or Madam,

I own Pereira's Bakery, and I am looking for a second location. I have been told that your work on Harbor Mill will be finished in June, which suits our plans well. The mill's position beside the ferry terminal is especially attractive to us.

Do you still have ground-floor units available? We would need at least 100 square metres. Is there a delivery area behind the building that tenants can use in the early morning? I would be grateful for any information.

Joao Pereira

Harbor Mill: Ground-Floor Units

Unit	Size	Status
G1	60 m²	Available
G2	105 m²	Leased (Tidewater Books)
G3	75 m²	Available
G4	110 m²	Available

All units have street-level entrances. Upper-floor office plans are shown on a separate page.

191. What is the purpose of the article?

(A) To give an update on a project
(B) To describe the benefits of waterfront shops
(C) To announce a new city policy
(D) To invite companies to bid on a contract

192. What does Ms. Lindqvist say in favor of Corvin Development?

(A) It charges low rents.
(B) It follows strict environmental standards.
(C) It has offered to pay for the road.
(D) It did careful work on earlier buildings.

193. What is suggested about Corvin Development in Mr. Pereira's e-mail?

(A) It obtained the permit it needed.
(B) It has moved its offices to Harbor Mill.
(C) It owns the ferry terminal.
(D) It is a newly established company.

194. What does Mr. Pereira ask about?

(A) A place to receive deliveries
(B) The distance to the ferry terminal
(C) The names of other tenants
(D) The date construction will end

195. Which unit would Mr. Pereira most likely rent?

(A) G1
(B) G2
(C) G3
(D) G4
