Questions 150-153 refer to the following e-mail.

To: Daniel Osei From: Priya Nair, Harborview Art Market Date: April 9
Subject: Your vendor application

Dear Mr. Osei,

Thank you for applying to sell at the Harborview Art Market. —[1]— All vendors must pay a $40 booth fee, whether or not they choose to rent a table from us. In addition, we ask that you send three photographs of your work so that our committee can review it. —[2]—

The market is held on the pier every Saturday from May through September, rain or shine, so vendors must bring a canopy to cover their goods. —[3]—

Please be aware that we already have a large number of ceramics vendors this season. Because your application arrived early, however, we expect to be able to offer you a booth. —[4]—

Sincerely,
Priya Nair

Maple Street Branch to Close for Renovations

LINDALE (September 3)—The Lindale Public Library will close its Maple Street branch for renovations beginning October 1. During the six-month project, the building will gain a children's reading room and four meeting rooms that community groups can reserve. Library director Omar Haddad said that the meeting rooms will be free for nonprofit organizations, while businesses will pay a fee of $30 per hour. "Our old branch had no space for groups to gather," Mr. Haddad noted. The branch is expected to reopen in April.

To: Omar Haddad From: Elena Marsh Date: April 12 Subject: Meeting room

Dear Mr. Haddad,

Congratulations on the reopening. I am writing on behalf of the Lindale Garden Society, a nonprofit volunteer group. We would like to reserve a meeting room for our monthly meeting on the first Tuesday of each month from 6 to 8 P.M. We usually have about 25 members attending, and we need a projector for presentations. Could you tell me which room would suit us?

Elena Marsh

Maple Street Branch Meeting Rooms	Seats	Projector
Room A	10	No
Room B	20	Yes
Room C	30	Yes
Room D	40	No

Rooms may be reserved up to two months in advance. All rooms close at 8:30 P.M.
