Ferris Packaging Opens Recycling Plant

GREENVILLE (April 2)—Ferris Packaging has opened a recycling plant on the site of a former steel mill along the Tule River. The facility will process up to 50 tons of used cardboard a day, turning it into material for the company's shipping boxes.

The project cost $18 million, about a third of which came from a state grant for businesses that reuse old industrial sites. Company president Lionel Ferris said the plant would cut the firm's raw material costs and create 85 jobs, most of which have already been filled.

The plant is the first of its kind in the county. Ferris plans to offer free tours to local schools beginning in the fall.

Founded in 1974, Ferris Packaging employs about 1,200 people at five plants in the state. Its customers include several national online retailers, which have sharply increased their orders for shipping boxes in recent years.

Valley Farmers Market Moves Indoors

By Celia Ward

After eleven summers in the parking lot of Carlton High School, the Valley Farmers Market will move into the former Hadley furniture showroom on Main Street this year, allowing it to operate year-round for the first time. — [1] —.

The showroom has been empty since 2022, when Hadley Furniture moved its business online. New lighting and a loading area for vendors were installed this spring.

Market manager Joan Pike said vendors had long asked for a permanent home. "Many of our farmers grow vegetables in greenhouses during the winter, but until now they had nowhere to sell them," she said.

The building, which the city purchased last year, will be leased to the market for one dollar a year. In return, the market will host free cooking classes for residents twice a month. — [2] —.

The market will be open on Saturdays and Sundays from 8 A.M. to 2 P.M. — [3] —. Thirty-two vendors have signed up so far, up from twenty last summer. — [4] —. Free parking will be available in the municipal lot across the street.

To:	Malik Osei
From:	Grace Lin, Northfield Conference Center
Date:	January 14
Subject:	Your booking

Dear Mr. Osei,

Thank you for choosing Northfield for the Regional Pharmacists' Association meeting on March 6. I have reserved the Birch Room, which seats 120, from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. As you requested, lunch will be served in the adjoining atrium at noon. Parking for your attendees is free in our north lot, and the Northfield Inn next door offers a discounted rate of $129 per night to guests attending events at our center.

In your message, you asked whether the projector in the Birch Room could connect to laptops wirelessly. Unfortunately, it requires a cable, but our technician will be on hand throughout the day and can provide adapters for most laptop models.

A deposit of $500 is due by February 6 to hold the room. The remaining balance will be invoiced after the event. Should your numbers exceed 120, please let me know as soon as possible so that I can check the availability of our larger Cedar Hall.

Sincerely,
Grace Lin, Events Manager

168. Why did Ms. Lin write the e-mail?

(A) To request payment for a past event
(B) To confirm the details of a booking

Rental Rates

Corbin Car Rental offers vehicles for every need. All rentals include unlimited mileage and basic insurance.

- Compact: $42 per day
- Midsize: $55 per day
- SUV (seats 5): $78 per day
- Minivan (seats 7): $96 per day

Rentals of five days or longer receive a 15 percent discount. Customers who return a vehicle to a location other than the one where it was picked up are charged a $60 fee. A valid driver's license and a credit card in the renter's name are required. Each additional driver under 25 years of age is charged $15 per day.

Corbin has 14 locations in Colorado, including offices at Denver International Airport and in downtown Boulder. Child seats are available for $8 per day and must be requested at the time of booking. All of our vehicles are less than three years old and are cleaned and inspected after every rental.

From: Hannah Weiss
Date: June 2
Subject: Upcoming trip

Hello,

I would like to reserve a vehicle for a family trip from July 10 to July 16. There will be six of us, including my parents, so we will need something with enough seats for everyone. We plan to pick up the car at your airport office in Denver and return it there at the end of the trip. We will be visiting several national parks, so we expect to drive quite a long distance. The credit card I will use is in my name, and I have held a driver's license for more than twenty years.

My son, who is 22, will share the driving with me. Could you tell me whether he will need to be present when we pick up the car?

Thank you,
Hannah Weiss

Questions 181-185 refer to the following article and e-mail.

Tellman Hotels Launches Loyalty Program

BOSTON (March 3)—Tellman Hotels, which operates 46 properties across New England, introduced a free loyalty program on Monday. Members earn ten points for every dollar spent on rooms and five points for every dollar spent at hotel restaurants. Points can be exchanged for free nights, starting at 15,000 points for a standard room.

Members who stay at least 20 nights in a calendar year reach Gold status, which includes free breakfast and late checkout at 2 P.M. Chief marketing officer Dana Ruiz said the program was designed with frequent business travelers in mind. "Many of our guests stay with us several times a month," she said.

The launch comes as competition for business travelers in the region grows. Two national chains opened hotels in Boston and Providence last year, and Tellman's occupancy rate fell slightly as a result. Travelers can join the program online, through the Tellman mobile app, or at the front desk of any Tellman property.

To:	Tellman Rewards
From:	Kenji Arai
Date:	December 18
Subject:	Gold status

Hello,

I joined Tellman Rewards in March and have stayed at your hotels many times this year for work, mainly in Hartford and Providence. According to my account, I have completed 19 nights so far. I have a reservation at the Tellman Portland for December 22 and 23, so I expect to reach Gold status then.

However, I'm concerned that my new status will not appear until January, since my stay ends so close to the end of the year. Could you confirm when it will take effect? I'd also like to know how I can use the points I earn at hotel restaurants. My company reimburses my room charges, but I pay for my own meals, so those points matter to me.

Best regards,
Kenji Arai

Westfield Community Center — Fall Adult Classes

Registration for fall classes opens August 15 and closes September 5. Classes run for eight weeks beginning the week of September 8. Westfield residents pay the listed fee; nonresidents pay an additional $20 per class. Members of the center receive 10 percent off the resident fee.

This fall, we are pleased to welcome two new instructors, Sara Lund and Paul Brandt, both of whom have taught at the Westfield Arts Academy for many years. Classes with fewer than six registered students one week before the start date will be canceled, and students will receive a full refund. Supplies are included unless otherwise noted.

Registration may be completed online, by phone, or in person at the front desk, which is open Monday through Saturday from 8 A.M. to 9 P.M. The center is located at 210 Grove Avenue, and free parking is available in the lot behind the building. Students who miss a class may attend the same lesson in another session only if space is available.

Fall Class Schedule

Class	Day	Time	Instructor	Fee
Watercolor Painting	Monday	6:30–8:30 P.M.	Sara Lund	$120*
Beginner Spanish	Tuesday	7:00–8:30 P.M.	Luis Ortega	$95
Digital Photography	Wednesday	6:00–8:00 P.M.	Ken Hale	$110
Basic Woodworking	Saturday	10:00 A.M.–noon	Paul Brandt	$140

*Students must purchase their own paints and brushes.

All classes meet in the second-floor studios except Basic Woodworking, which meets in the workshop on the lower level.

Subject: Class question

Hello,

I registered for the Wednesday class last week, but I just found out that my work schedule is changing and I'll be working weekday evenings this fall. Is it possible to switch to the only class held on a weekend? I live in Westfield and am a member of the center, so I assume I will just need to pay the difference. I really enjoyed the photography course I took at the center last spring, so I am sorry to give up this one.

Also, a friend who lives in nearby Carlisle would like to take the class with me. She has some experience with power tools but has never taken a formal course. Could you tell me how she can register, and whether there is still room in the class? I would be grateful for a quick reply, since registration closes in a few days.

Thanks,
Olivia Tran

Hi Marcus,

I've booked your trip to the trade fair in Lisbon; your itinerary is attached. As requested, you'll stay at the Hotel Avenida, a ten-minute walk from the exhibition center. The company will reimburse taxi fares to and from the airport, but please use public transportation for other travel within the city.

Your room rate includes breakfast and Wi-Fi. I have also reserved a seat for you at the exhibitors' dinner on the evening of April 16; details will be sent by the organizers. The fair is expected to draw more than 600 exhibitors this year, so I recommend that you register for your badge online before you leave; it will save you a long wait at the entrance.

Remember to keep all receipts. Expense reports are due within two weeks of your return.

Lena

Hi Lena,

Thanks for arranging everything. Since I'll land several hours before I can check in, could you ask the hotel whether they can hold my luggage?

Also, one of our clients, Daniela Costa, has invited me to visit her factory in Porto on the day after the fair ends. Her factory is about three hours from Lisbon by train, so I would leave early that morning and return to Lisbon in the evening. Would it be possible to move my return flight to the following day and book me a train to Porto? I realize this will add a night to my stay.

One more thing: the organizers have asked me to take part in a panel discussion on the afternoon of April 16, so I will be away from our booth for about two hours that day. Could you let Paolo know so that he can cover for me?

Marcus

191. What is the purpose of the first e-mail?

(A) To request an expense report

(C) To book a taxi
(D) To share a travel plan

192. What is Mr. Webb told about travel within Lisbon?

(A) He should rent a car.
(B) The hotel offers a shuttle.
(C) The fair is near the airport.
(D) Some taxi costs will be repaid.

193. Why does Mr. Webb ask about his luggage?

(A) His flight was changed.
(B) The hotel is far from the airport.
(C) He will arrive before check-in time.
(D) He is bringing fair samples.

194. On what date does Mr. Webb want to visit the factory?

(A) April 17
(B) April 19
(C) April 18
(D) April 15

195. What will Ms. Ortiz most likely have to do?

(A) Contact Ms. Costa
(B) Cancel a hotel stay
(C) Change a flight booking
(D) Submit an expense report

Service Plans

Our trained teams clean homes across the Millbrook area. All plans include kitchens, bathrooms, dusting, and vacuuming.

- One-time clean: $150
- Every other week: $110 per visit
- Weekly: $95 per visit

Add-ons: inside oven ($25), inside refrigerator ($20), interior windows ($40). New customers who book a recurring plan receive their third visit free. Cancellations made less than 48 hours before a visit are charged half the visit price.

All of our cleaners are background-checked, insured, and trained to use environmentally friendly products. Customers do not need to be home during a visit; many simply leave a key or an access code with us. Gift certificates are also available.

Great results, one hiccup

I've had Brightside clean my apartment every other week since January, and the team is thorough and friendly. They do an amazing job on the oven, which I add every time. I usually leave a key with my building manager, and the team has never had any trouble getting in.

My only complaint is that in March I had to cancel a visit the night before because of a family emergency, and I was still charged. I understand it's their policy, but I wish they had been more flexible with a long-time customer. Still, I would recommend Brightside to anyone looking for a reliable cleaning service, and I plan to keep using them. —Mei Nakamura

Dear Ms. Nakamura,

Thank you for taking the time to review our service. We are glad you are happy with our team's work, and we understand how frustrating it must have been to be charged during a family emergency. After reading your comments, we have decided to allow customers who have used our services for at least three months to cancel one visit per year without charge.

As this change applies to you, we have credited the amount you were charged in March to your account. It will appear on your next bill. We have also passed your kind comments about the oven cleaning along to your team leader, Rosa Diaz.

Sincerely,
Victor Hale, Customer Care

196. What is indicated on the Web page?
(A) Weekly visits cost $110.
(B) Some services cost extra.
(C) All plans include window cleaning.
(D) The first visit is free.

197. How much does Ms. Nakamura most likely pay for each visit?
(A) $135
(B) $110
(C) $150
(D) $95

198. What is suggested about the visit Ms. Nakamura canceled?
(A) She canceled it on short notice.
(B) It was her first visit.
(C) It was moved to April.
(D) It included window cleaning.

199. Why did Mr. Hale give Ms. Nakamura a credit?
(A) She found a billing error.
(B) She meets a new requirement.
(C) She referred a new customer.
(D) She wrote a positive review.

200. What does Mr. Hale say about the credit?
(A) It can be used only in March.
(B) It will be mailed as a check.
(C) It will appear on her next bill.
(D) It covers a year of service.

Stop! This is the end of the test. If you finish before time is called, you may go back to Parts 5, 6, and 7 and check your work.
